I.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the licensee with the following violations of Chapter 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230.

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Dawg Tagz II, LLC, d/b/a Lake City Tavern, 9106 Veterans Dr. SW, Lakewood, the following license:

05-20609 Authorizing Class "C" Punch Board/Pull-Tab activity.

This license, which expires on September 30, 2010, was issued subject to the licensee's compliance with state gambling laws, and Commission rules.

SUMMARY:

On September 10, 2009, David Garrison, sole owner of Dawg Tags II, LLC, d/b/a Lake City Tavern (Lake City Tavern), was charged with Felony Assault 2nd Degree and Felony Harassment. Lake City Tavern has failed to prove through clear and convincing evidence that it continues to qualify for licensure. These felony charges involve physical harm to an individual and moral turpitude. Lake City Tavern poses an immediate danger to public safety and welfare, and its license should be revoked. On October 31, 2009, Mr. Garrison was charged with Violation of a No Contact Order in Lakewood Municipal Court. This violation of court order reflects Mr. Garrison's willful disregard for compliance with court orders, and therefore Lake City Tavern poses an immediate danger to public safety and welfare, and its license should be revoked. In addition, Lake City Tavern failed to pay exceeding class fees for its Punch Board/Pull-Tab license for the license year ending September 30, 2009.

FACTS:

1) On November 30, 2009, the licensee was served with Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Order of Summary Suspension which included the following allegations:

- On October 21, 2009, a Commission Special Agent (Agent) was assigned Lake City Tavern's file for determination of David Garrison's suitability as a substantial interest holder.<sup>1</sup> The agent performed a routine annual criminal history check, and determined that Mr. Garrison was charged on September 10, 2009 with Felony Assault 2nd Degree and Felony Harassment.

- As part of the investigation, the agent reviewed Mr. Garrison's license history. The agent noted that Mr. Garrison was first licensed with the Commission on August 22, 2007, as sole owner and LLC Manager of Dawg Tagz, LLC, d/b/a Lake City Tavern. David Garrison is the sole owner of the following businesses:
- Dawg Tagz, LLC, d/b/a Lake City Tavern, license number 00-21375, authorizing Class "C" Punch Board/Pull-Tab activity. The license expires September 30, 2010.
- Dawg Tagz II, LLC, d/b/a The Fan Club, license number 00-21674, authorizing Class "G" Punch Board/Pull-Tab activity. The license expires June 30, 2010.
- Dawg Tagz III, LLC, d/b/a C & D Family Restaurant, license number 00-21701, authorizing Class "A" Punch Board/Pull-Tab activity, and Class "A" Commercial Amusement Game activity. Both licenses lapsed October 2, 2009.
- On October 20, 2009, the agent obtained a certified copy of the Information and Probable Cause from Pierce County Superior Court for Mr. Garrison's pending case.
- The Information charges Mr. Garrison with 2nd Degree Felony Assault, and Felony Harassment, occurring on September 9, 2009.
- The Certification for Declaration for Determination of Probable Cause included the following information:
  - On September 9, 2009, at 10:26 p. m., officers responded to C & D Family Restaurant. There they spoke to Cherith Bearss, who dated Mr. Garrison until two days prior, when they broke up.
  - Ms. Bearss stated to officers that Mr. Garrison had called her 100 times in 24 hours, and that he had been drinking heavily.
  - Ms. Bearss reported that they had been working in the restaurant around closing that day when Mr. Garrison threatened to hang himself in the back room. Ms. Bearss then tried to call Mr. Garrison's sister, but Mr. Garrison ripped the Bluetooth from her ear, with her earring, grabbed her wrist, and took the phone away. Ms. Bearss then stated that Mr. Garrison then used one hand to grab her by the throat and choke her, and said that if hanging himself did not work, he would shoot her and himself.

<sup>1</sup> A substantial interest holder is defined under WAC 230-03-045 (1) as "a person who has actual or potential influence over the management or operation of any organization, association, or other business entity."

- Mr. Garrison was detained, and given his Miranda warnings. He denied assaulting Ms. Bearss, and claimed she called police because “she couldn’t get him on suicide.” According to officer reports, Ms. Bearss had a visibly swollen wrist, and there was a ladder near the ceiling.
- Mr. Garrison did not report to the Commission the September 2009 felony charges against him, as required.

2) The licensee requested an adjudicative hearing, and a stay hearing on December 14, 2009. The Stay hearing was held on December 18, 2009. The Stay was denied by Administrative law Judge John Gray on December 30, 2009. An administrative hearing is scheduled for February 23, 2010.

3) After the Summary Suspension was issued, the agent determined that the Superior Court had issued a pre-trial No-Contact Order prohibiting Mr. Garrison from contacting Ms. Bearss. On October 31, 2009, Mr. Garrison was charged with Violation of a No Contact Order in Lakewood Municipal Court. It is alleged that Mr. Garrison knowingly violated the order prohibiting contact with Ms. Bearss by being present at the Lake City Tavern while Ms. Bearss was working at that location. Mr. Garrison did not report these charges to Commission Staff.

4) Commission files reflect that Lake City Tavern exceeded its license class.<sup>2</sup> Lake City Tavern holds a class ‘B’ Punch-Board/Pull-Tab license, allowing for a maximum of $100,000 in gross receipts per year. Quarterly reports filed by Lake City Tavern reflect that from the 4th quarter of 2008 through the 3rd quarter of 2009, their gross receipts were $108,995.

5) On November 13, 2009, a Commission Customer Service Specialist sent Lake City Tavern a notice that they had exceeded their class and needed to pay $1,518 by no later than December 14, 2009. This sum included the difference in the license fees ($994), a change of class fee ($27), and an exceeding class fee ($497).

6) As of February 12, 2009, Lake City Tavern had not paid the exceeding class fee, upgraded their license, or paid the change of class fee.

VIOLATIONS

1) RCW 9.46.075(1) provides the Commission may revoke any license for any reason or reasons, it deems to be in the public interest.

<sup>2</sup> Exceeding class is a designation given when a punch-board/pull-tab operator sells more pull-tabs than is allowed by their license, as determined by the operators gross gambling receipts. Different classes of licenses (A, B, C) allow a licensee to sell up to a designated level of gross receipts. Commission rules require an upgrade fee to be paid for a license that authorizes gross receipts in excess of the current license class. An exceeding class fee is charged by the Commission when the licensee fails to upgrade their license to the proper class within the time required.

2) RCW 9.46.075(9) provides that the Commission may revoke a license of any licensee who is subject to current prosecution or pending charges . . . or any crime, whether a felony or misdemeanor involving any gambling activity or physical harm to individuals or involving moral turpitude.

3) WAC 230-03-085(1) and (8) provide that the Commission may revoke a license of any licensee, when the licensee poses a threat to the effective regulation of gaming or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gaming activities as demonstrated by prior activities.

4) WAC 230-03-085(3) provides that the Commission may suspend, or revoke any application, license or permit, when the applicant, licensee, or anyone holding a substantial interest in the applicant's or licensee's business or organization has demonstrated willful disregard for complying with ordinances, statutes, administrative rules, or court orders, whether at the local, state, or federal level.

5) RCW 9.46.075(8) provides that the Commission may revoke any license when a licensee fails to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that it is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. RCW 9.46.153(1) provides that it shall be the affirmative responsibility of each licensee to establish by clear and convincing evidence the necessary qualifications for licensure.

6) WAC 230-06-085(1) states that licensees must report to the Commission in writing within 30 days of all criminal actions filed against the licensee, manager of the licensed gambling activity, the business organization, or any person holding a substantial interest.

Mr. Garrison is charged with having committed 2nd Degree Felony Assault and Felony Harassment occurring on September 9, 2009. Mr. Garrison is also charged with violating a NO Contact Order. Mr. Garrison failed to report his pending charges, as required, in violation of WAC 230-06-085(1). The licensee poses a threat to the effective regulation of gaming, or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices as demonstrated by his prior activity.

7) WAC 230-06-130 provides that licensees must not exceed the gross gambling receipts limits for their license class during any annual license period. Licensees must apply a projection of year-to-date receipts to the remaining period of their license and, if it indicates that it is reasonably likely that they may exceed their license they must immediately: (a) Apply for a license that authorizes the anticipated level of gross gambling receipts; and (b) Submit the fee required for the new license, minus the amount originally submitted for the previous license, plus a change of classification fee,

8) WAC 230-06-135 provides that if licensees fail to apply for a license class upgrade and exceed the license class limit within a present or previous license year, we assess an additional fee. The Commission charges an additional fee of up to fifty percent of the difference between the fee for the present license class and the new license class, or one thousand dollars, whichever is less. Licensees must pay any required license class upgrade fee, plus any additional fee within thirty days of notification by the Commission. Failure to pay the fees may result in an immediate summary suspension of all licenses.

On November 13, 2009, a Commission Customer Service Specialist sent Lake City Tavern a notice that they had exceeded their class, and needed to pay $1,518 no later than December 14, 2009. This sum included the difference in the license fees ($994), a change of class fee ($27), and an exceeding class fee ($497). As of February 12, 2009, Lake City Tavern had not paid the exceeding class fee, upgraded their license, or paid the change of class fee.

The licensee failed to upgrade its license and pay the required fee, in violation of WAC 230-06-130 and WAC 230-06-135.

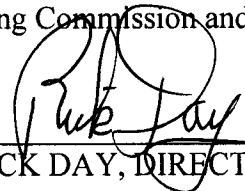

The licensee has also failed to establish clearly and convincingly, as required by RCW 9.46.153(1), that it is qualified to be licensed. Grounds, therefore, exist to revoke Lake City Tavern's license based on RCW 9.46.075(1), (8), and (9), and WAC 230-03-085(1), (3), and (8).
